

Berit Hals

I graduated in Fine Arts from the Complutense University of Madrid in 1980 and completed my studies in Painting, Art and Design at Concordia University in Montreal (Canada) and Stockholm University (Sweden).

I have a background in Graphic Design, Serigraphy and Contemporary Art. I have developed professionally as a painter and a painting and drawing professor. Solo and group exhibitions in Spain, Sweden, Portugal and Canada participating in painting and textile art contests.

Since 2003 I am an adults and children professor in Madrid and I teach watercolor and silk painting in my atelier. In recent years I have focused my work on silk painting making paintings and applying different techniques to the creation of fashion accessories.

My works have been selected in different International Textile Art Exhibitions and I have been President of the Association of Textile Creators of Madrid, ACTM from 2015 to June 2019.
